Anonymous Donor Helps Handicapped

The Good Samaritan is alive and well somewhere on the Peninsula, according to a tip received from Edward Fisher, assistant vice-president of Seaside's Security Savings and Loan Association.

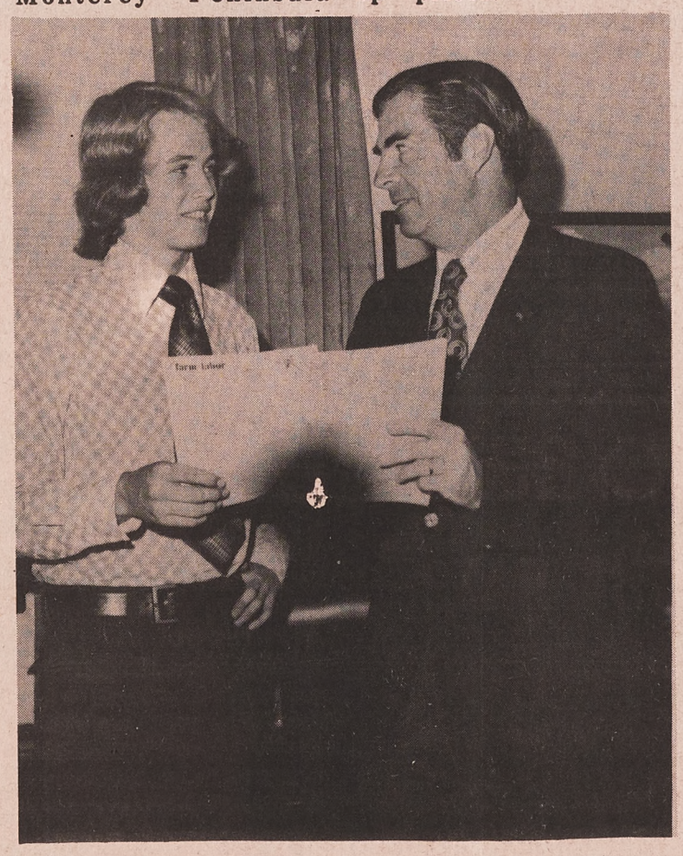

The story goes like this: One of the bank's depositors became aware of the plight of San Francisco's Recreation Center for the Handicapped.

A camp program contract with an Easter Seal organization had to be broken because of stepped-up prices.

Over 235 handicapped children and adults were out of a week's worth of camping facilities and activities, until their situation was published by a San Francisco newspaper.

Schools Offer Free Meals

The Monterey Peninsula Unified School District will continue its participation in the federal free or reduced-price lunch program during 1973-74, Supt. James C. Harrison has announced.

Last year more than 1.1 million lunches were served in the district's cafeterias, and of those nearly 300,000 were free and over 19,000 were served at a reduced price, Dr. Harrison reported.

Parents and guardians will receive letters explaining the free and reduced-price meals, along with an application form and tables to help them see if they qualify, he said. The letters will be hand-carried by students and parents who don't receive the letter may contact the school principal for information about the program.

Normally, students may buy lunches for 45 cents in elementary schools, 50 cents in junior high schools jnd 55 cents in senior high schools. Some schools serve breakfasts for 15 cents. Students who qualify for reduced-price lunches may eat lunch for 20 cents and breakfast for 10 cents.

Parents or guardians may apply for free or reduced-price meals for their children at any time during the school year, Dr. Harrison said. In some cases, foster children may also be eligible, he added.

Dr. Harrison said all children will be treated alike regardless of their ability to pay for their school meals. In the cafeteria programs, "no child will be discriminated against because of his race, sex, color or national origin," he stated.

Community Concerned About MPUSD Reorganization Rumors

An overflow crowd expressing concern about reports of an administrative reorganization in the Monterey Peninsula Unified School District has won a promise from district trustees that no reorganization will be made without public discussion.

That discussion is expected to take place when the board meets on September 4, according to Board President Lonnie Ayers.

The community's concern apparently stems from rumors regarding a reorganization of top district administrators following the appointment of Dr. James C. Harrison as superintendent. Although several speakers at the board meeting spoke of the community's concern in the matter, no specific reports or rumours regarding any reorganization plan were brought to light.

Dr. Harrison acknowledged that a reorganization plan will be forthcoming, and said he had already presented a proposal to all the district's principals and administrators at a retreat in Los Altos a week ago. He asked them for reactions, he said, explaining it was then his intention to discuss his proposal with the board during the personnel session August 20. He said he did not want to make the plan public until he discussed it with the board, and trustees said during Monday's meeting that they wanted to hear the plan behind closed doors because it would deal with personnel matters. State law allows a public board to go into private when discussing personnel.

Following the personnel session, President Ayers announced that the "concept" of the new organizational scheme and details regarding it would be made available by being included in the agenda for the board's next meeting. The meeting is September 4 at 7:30 p.m. in the board room at 700 Pacific Street, Monterey, and the agenda will be ready by this Friday, August 31.

One member of the audience, which was mostly black, told the board many of the people were at the meeting to offer congratulations to the new superintendent and "express our deep concern and interest for our school system." He told the board, "we will be watching the progress of this administration with keen interest."

Auditions Are September 7 and 8

Auditions for positions in Monterey County Symphony Association will be held on September 7 and 8. Those who wish an appointment may call the Symphony, under the direction of Haymo Taeuber, presents six series of 3 concerts each in the cities of Monterey, Carmel and Salinas. Season tickets have been on sale since May, and the Carmel Series is completely sold out. Tickets are still available for Monterey and Salinas. A brochure and ticket application will be mailed upon request. Call or write Box 3965, Carmel, CA 93921.

The Symphony Association has just completed a three-year contract with Local 616, American Federation of Musicians and negotiations have been in progress since June for a new three-year contract. Documents were signed on August 23 giving the musicians an increased wage scale which will be tied to the cost of living index for the San Francisco Metropolitan Statistical area for future adjustments.

A major benefit for the musicians is the addition of Social Security. Millard M. Hawkins, President of Local 616, stated that a great step forward for the Orchestra was the inclusion of a clause assuring that in the near future all members of the Orchestra will be Union musicians.

W. Edgar Gallwey, President of the Symphony Association, stated that the increase in fees would add approximately $8,000 to the budget, with another $4,000 for Social Security. The Symphony paid $56,840 oo musicians during the 1972-73 season, exclusive of the Conductor and soloists. The new budget for 1973-74 is projected at $155,480 for all expenses. Last season's total was $130,870.

The Orchsetra, now in its 28th season, has grown under the leadership of Haymo Taeuber from Urban status to Metropolitan status, a classification of American Symphony Orchestra League for orchestras having a gross annual budget over $100,000.

The Symphony's greatest handicap is lack of adequate concert hall facilities. Because it must play three concerts in Monterey, Carmel and Salinas, musicians and soloists fees are three times as great as those of Symphony orchestras having one large concert hall.

Ord Soldiers Help Fight Yosemite Fire

THANKS - Smokey the Bear, alias Brian Phelps of California State Division of Forestry's Carmel Hill Fire Station, welcomes home soldiers of Fort Ord's 14th Engineer Battalion. Engineers returned last week after helping U.S. Forest Service crews battle fire near Yosemite for past week.

Two hundred and forty-four tired, dirty and happy soldiers from the 14th Engineer Battalion returned to Fort Ord recently after helping U.S. Forest Service crews battle a fire near Yosemite for the past week.

They were met by the 28th Army Band, Smokey the Bear, and Fort Ord Chief of Staff, Colonel Howard H. Braunstein. Colonel Braunstein welcomed the men home on behalf of the post, and said: "We thank you and certainly the people of California thank you for a job well done."

Members of the Engineer Battalion who did not accompany the group to fight the fire near Yosemite got their opportunity to help a little closer to home as they helped fight and contain the fire near Laguna Seca last week.

Anonymous Donor Helps Handicapped

calls poured in, said director of center programs, Annmarie Magna.

One of the donations was a $1500 check from the anonymous depositors of Security Savings, with a promise to donate an additional $1,000 if the center needed it.

Mr. Fisher said the couple, a husband and wife, had been interested in the handicapped center for almost three years, and could have possibly donated the money without first seeing the newspaper article, but he (naturally) refused to disclose any more information about them.

As a result of the donations which totaled more than $2,500 as of last Wednesday, the center is again able to hunt for a new camp location.

"Wouldn't it be nice," said Mr. Fisher, "if townspeople were to be inspired by the generous gift-giving and do something about local centers for the handicapped?

THE SEASIDE POST NEWS SENTINEL POLICY

By Tom Nash

It was recently brought to my attention that some of our readers are not familiar with the editorial policy of this newspaper. To clarify this policy and eliminate once and for all any misunderstanding relative to this matter submitted is the editorial policy of this publication.

WHAT IS AN EDITORIAL

An editorial is the expressing of an opinion, after research, interviews and intensive investigations of a condition or conditions that exist in a particular community, city, county, state or nation. It is the official view the publication takes, through the writings of either the publisher or the editor.

GUEST EDITORIALS

A guest editorial is an opinion of an individual and has no bearing on the official viewpoint of the publication. Any citizen may submit a guest editorial and the chance of it being published is very good so long as it is newsworthy and does not contain matters that are illegal and libelous.

PRIORITIES

A newspaper is an organ of communications that represent many races, religions, creeds, and views. It has the responsibility to present many sides of the news. It has the DUTY to tell the truth regardless of whose toes are stepped upon. It has the responsibility of presenting facts, and most of all, both sides of the picture. There are two sides to every story and it is the DUTY of every responsible newspaper to tell both sides of the story, regardless of the opinion of the editor or the publisher. The editor and/or the publisher expresses their opinion in the editorial.

Let me make it adamantly clear that a newspaper depends on its advertising to exist, but it is the property of the communities which it serves. It can never exist without the input from the community. It has a responsibility to promote the advertisers. The Seaside POST & News Sentinel is presently doing this, and will continue to do this as long as it is in a position to be placed on the street. Such areas as "Faces Around The Bay," "Business Of The Week," and yes, "Guest Editorials" will be utilized by our paper to promote these advertisers, for they are making it possible for this publication to be delivered to you weekly. We are grateful for this opportunity.

This does not mean that any one of our advertisers own the publication or any portion thereof. It is a courtesy that we are extending to our advertisers to help promote their businesses.

To date we have published every guest editorial that has been submitted to us, and we will continue to do so. If you have an opinion that you would like to have expressed then simply submit it to us, instead of criticizing those who have submitted their opinion. If you do not agree with the editorial, respond by writing one of your own or "A Letter To The Editor," we will publish it, providing it does not fall within the category of the aforementioned.

We have published every "Letter To The Editor" we have received. I notice that yours is missing. Why?

This is my first editorial. The reason being that I have not been in the community long enough to make a valued judgement about some of the matters that need editorial comment, and I am not through investigating other matters that I plan on expressing my opinion about at a later date.

OWNERSHIP OF THIS PUBLICATION

The ownership of the Seaside POST and News Sentinel is published weekly on the editorial page in a box. I will be redundent and repeat the owners of this publication. It is the property of the Alameda Publishing Corporation of Oakland. Thomas L. Berkley, President and Publisher. Thomas Nash, Manager/Editor and Clintell C. Porter, Advertising Manager. These are they. There are no more.

Letters to theEditor

Editor: I wish that I could agree with Lou Haddad, when he lists among the "real effects of Watergate" such things as the decrease in the value of the dollar, high grocery prices, scarcity of fuel, high interest rates, and uncontrollable inflation. He says that "inflation is out of hand, uncontrollable partly because our elected officials are concentrating more on Watergate and its effects rather than carrying on the business of making laws and bolstering the American prestige worldwide."

Mr. Haddad also states that the Democrats are using the hearings for political advantage and will prolong them until next year's primaries until they have satisfied themselves that they have reaped the fruits of their carefully planned advantage.

However, there is a great deal of evidence indicating that our President may have been the driving force behind the whole business now under investigation. Mr. Nixon, himself, perhaps for an excellent reason is withholding evidence that could clear up the whole matter so that we could, in fact, put Watergate behind us and get on with other pressing needs. It takes quite a stretch of the imagination to believe his action is more concerned with executive privilege than with protecting himself under the provisions of the Fifth Amendment.

I believe it imperative, if we are really sincerely interested in America's future, to find out if our leader is honest and capable or dishonest and incapable. If he is the latter, he certainly has no business in the White House for three more years.

C of C Progress Report

by Verlaine Crawford,

The Seaside Chamber of Commerce voted to continue a study of the Seaside Foundation concept at the last meeting of the Board of Directors.

The Seaside Foundation would be set up with members of the community and members of the Chamber of Commerce. The purpose would be Health, Education and Community Development.

Under Health could be a medical clinic and the various agencies which are within Seaside.

Under Education may be a Career Education Center for adults as well as the youth.

Under Community Development could be Business Development and City Planning.

This Foundation would be a way for us in the private sector to help your community to grow and prosper. It would be separate from the Chamber of Commerce and yet could utilize the Chamber's staff for administrative purposes.

Sources of funding would be from donations from the business community (this would be a way to centralize all the many donations you have to give each year), from government and from foundation grants.

The study will continue and the next meeting of all the Seaside agencies will be Wednesday, Aug. 29, at 2 p.m. at the Seaside Chamber.

The Military Affairs Committee is doing very well in organizing "Military-Community Week" October 1 through 7. Socko and Volleyball games will be played between military and civilian teams during the week and the bit

JOBS FOR YOUTH

The Monterey Peninsula derives much of its economic health as a result of tourism and, of course, our military installations. Throughout the summer, I was repeatedly asked, "How can we provide more job opportunities for our youth when we lack larger industrial complexes for a source of employment?"

There is a way that 400 young people could be employed all summer long! As a matter of fact, this employment could be over the entire year.

The Monterey Peninsula is world reknown for its golf courses. Excluding Fort Ord and NPGS, there are eight fabulous golf courses that attract thousands of golf enthusiasts on a daily basis. Next January 2-6, Bing Crosby's Pro-Am will bring thousands of golfing fans--players and spectators to our Peninsula. During the Crosby approximately 100 of our young people will have the opportunity to earn a minimum of $15.00 for each round of golf that they work as a CADDY.

The proposal that I am suggesting for consideration is not very complicated but will require the cooperation of Golf Course owners/managers and the willingness of our youth to participate.

The Proposal: All eight golf courses require a minimum of one (1) caddy for each foursome. Caddy fees, as appropriate, for each golf course should be established.

Monterey Peninsula Unified School District, in conjunction with its Career Education Program, can establish a vocational training course for prospective caddies and a potential pool of caddies can be readily formed. Monterey Peninsula College students could also participate.

The fact that golfers no longer walk but use golf carts is not an argument against the requirement for a caddy. Any true golfer will agree that a knowledgeable caddy is a great asset to the game and worth his fee.

This proposal is a challenge for our youth, our Chambers of Commerce, our school districts, and the golf course owners. I believe it is worth trying because there are obvious bonus results for each category.

Monterey Peninsula Seaside — After Dark —

By Tom Nash

Seaside was invaded over the weekend by some 75 members of the Central District Council 119 of the Pacific States Association of the International Brotherhood & Protective Order of the Elks of the World (IBPOE of W) and Seaside will never be the same. They came from Tulare, Bakersfield, Fresno, and Monterey for this session and met at the Seaside Lodge on Del Monte. From there they invaded the Fireside which has recently opened their restaurant and is serving some lip-smacking good food. However I learned that they were not there to just eat, for the bar has been practically empty since.

The group was here making and finalizing plans for the Pacific States Association meeting which shall be announced later.

I have received many compliments on my column which deals with the lighter side of the news, and I have received one complaint. To the complainant, if you are not satisfied, just return the unused portion of the paper, and I will return you the unused portion of your money, Willie Adams.

"Blood," Eddie Williams, the unfriendly bartender at the Fireside, has put together a master bowling team which is knocking pins over, right and left. I was honored to learn that I have been chosen to manage this team, which will engage a team from Oakland in the new future. It is my intent to be a player/manager though, for I am the greatest bowler on the West Coast. Yesterday, during one of my practice sessions, while bowling on lane 12, I made a perfect strike on lane 10. Very quietly the manager of the alley came over to me and informed me that I was wanted at the office. I wonder if he was trying to get rid of me.

I shall oppose Commissioner Berry Weekes, Art Commissioner from Oakland, and Mayor Joe Dolan will oppose Port of Oakland President Tom Berkley. Then the "Hungry Five," that's the name of our team, will take on Oakland's "Grass Cutters." Oakland has some tough girls on their team. There is Kay Murray, who has a 175 handicap average. She is one of the lesser players. But Seaside shall meet and defeat this Oakland team of men and girls. Just watch for the announcement in the paper. You haven't seen our surprise dynamite package we have in store for them. He is Alphonso Pratt who has a whoppin' 267 handicap and has been sought after by most of the major teams.

When I interviewd Pratt, he was most modest. He stated after two hours of, "can't nobody bowl like me," kind of conversation, that the world will little note nor long remember his many contributions to the bowling world.

If he bowls anything like he shoots pool, then no one has a chance. We played four games over at Dave's Wintergarden, and Pratt only lost three of those.

Pratt is one of the counselors over at The Community Services Center on Del Monte, formerly OEO, now they have a fancy title.

We are awaiting the completed list of your paper boys in order that we can publish them for you. We intend to list all of our boys so that you can know and appreciate the job they are doing. These boys are under the jurisdiction of YAFA, (Young Adults For Action), an organization I admire very highly.

It is anticipated that these youth will grow in the community, and some day in the near future, will replace many of us in this highly competitive field, and many of them can thank YAFA for the special efforts they are putting forth in their and the community's behalf.

Clintell C. Porter, Disc Jockey Extraordinaire, jumped on the air with his first show, Sunday, and sounded like a professional, as if he had been doing it all his life. He had all kinds of good sounds, and has voiced his intentions of improving this two hour show. If you have not heard it, I advise you to listen in from 12 noon to 2 p.m. on KZEN, 107.1 on your FM dial, each Sunday. Yes, he is still with the paper and is doing a fantastic job both ways. (OK Clint, you can put your razor down, I mentioned it).

I have learned that Curtis Mayfield is writing and will produce the score for the 20th Century Fox picture, Claudine, which will star James Earl Jones and Diana Sands, and will be directed by Ossie Davis. The sound track will be performed by Gladys Knight and the Pips and will be released on Buddah Records. This is Curtis' first film score since the monumental Super Fly, the recording of which has been awarded two gold singles, one gold LP, one platinum LP and Ampex's first gold tape.

Promoted To General

Brigadier General Edward M. Markham III, Fort Ord's deputy commander, was promoted to his present rank last week.

General Markham's wife Dorothy helped Maj. Gen. Robert G. Gard, Jr., Fort Ord's commander, pin the stars on the new general officer--a veteran combat infantryman with service both in Korea and Vietnam.

General Markham is a graduate of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, and served in combat during the Korean War with the 7th Infantry Division, and with the 1st Cavalry Division in Vietnam.

His military schooling includes the Army War College, the Armed Forces Staff College, and the Command and General Staff College. He holds a Master's Degree in Civil Engineering from Georgia Tech.

Charlie Parker To Be Honored By Jazz Fest

The Sixteenth Annual Monterey Jazz Festival will feature a special tribute to the late alto saxophone genius, Charlie Parker, Saturday evening, September 22.

Billed as "Bird Night" the show will feature Dizzy Gillespie and his Quintet; the Modern Jazz Quartet; vocalist, Carmen McRae; Supersax and a jam session with Max Roach, Milt Jackson, Ray Brown, Sonny Stitt, Frank Rosolino, John Lewis and Gillespie.

The Monterey Jazz Festival is scheduled for September 21, 22, 23. It will consist of five concerts--Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings, and Saturday and Sunday afternoons. It is held in the 7000-seat outdoor arena on the Monterey County Fairgrounds.

"The Charlie Parker tribute is something we have wanted to do for a long time," according to Jimmy Lyons, Festival general Parker was a genius, and it is fitting that we honor him," said Lyons.

Trumpeter Gillespie was closely associated with Parker and, in fact, the two were considered co-leaders of the celebrated jazz be-bop movement.

Among other artists already announced for the Festival are: Bo Diddley, Jimmy Rogers, Dave Alexander, Eddie "Clean-head" Vinson, Elvin Jones; Percy, Tootie and Jimmy Heath; Jackie and Roy, and the Thad Jones-Mel Lewis Band.

1st Woman Named To NPS Faculty

Associate Professor of Government and Humanities, Dr. Barbara Gabel is the first and only woman to acquire faculty status at the Naval Postgraduate School, where she received her tenure in July.

The school's civilian faculty numbered 262 in 1972, which means that 0.38 percent of it were women.

Prof. Gabel is a native of Columbus, Ohio. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree with Phi Beta Kappa honors from Dickinson College, and with the aid of a tuition scholarship, she earned her Master of Arts from George Peabody College.

Among her various teaching assignment, I'rof. Gabel had spent three years as an Assistant Professor of English at Rollins College. "I was a Doctoral candidate, teaching assistant and teaching fellow while in residence at the University of North Carolina," she added, "where I received my Doctorate."

The following year she was commissioned in the Women's Army Corps. During her service tour, she served as WAC Procurement Officer at San Francisco's Presidio, and at Fort Gordon, Georgia, as Arts, Monuments and Archives Officer of the 95th Civil Affairs Group. The professor resigned her commission upon her marriage in 1959, and after a few more teaching assignments, joined the Postgraduate School's faculty in 1967.

Infection Workshop Slated

A unique workshop in methods of controlling infections commonly found in hospitals will be sponsored next month by the State Department of Health and five professional organizations.

State Health Director J.M. Stubblebine, M.D., said special hospital infection control teams from California health facilities will be given preference for enrollment, which is limited to 150. The workshop will be held at Asilomar Conference Grounds, Pacific Grove, September 16-18.

Staphylococcus ("staph"), a common organism with many disease- causing forms, usually is well-controlled in hospitals by strict observance of sterilizing and disinfecting techniques, Dr. Stubblebine said. Purpose of the workshop is to train more hospital treatment teams in the control of staphylococcus and other infections through epidemiology, or determining the source and more of disease transmission.

Improved epidemiologic techniques have reduced hospital infections in recent years and the health hazard to post-operative patients and infants is significantly less, according to the workshop sponsors. Creation of a special unit to control hospital infections has been suggested by the State Department of Health, Dr. Stubblebine said.

Co-Sponsors of the workshop are the California Hospital Association, California Medical Association, California Lung Association, California Nurses Association and Northern California Practitioners of Infection Control. Registration deadline is August 30; applications may be sent to the California Lung Association, 424 Pendleton Way, Oakland 94621.

Dr. Stubblebine said the workshop was organized because of demands by the Joint Commission for Hospital Accrediation to improve infection control, and because ecisting facilities for training in use of the epidemiological method are insufficient. Participants will be provided with information, tools and basic principles needed to develop effective control programs, he said.

Faculty members include Lois Ann Shearer, R.N., health department nurse epidemiologist, Margaret Deane, a state biostatistician, and infectious disease personnel. Other instructors will come from the U.S. Center for Disease Control in Atlanta and hospitals in California.

Concerts Are Set

The sounds of jazz and folk music will be heard once again at the Paul Masson Mountain Vineyard in Saratoga at a series of four weekend concerts in September.

This season "Vintage Sounds" will present Jon Hendricks in his own composition "Evolution of the Blues" Sept. 8 & 9; The George Shearing Trio Sept. 15 & 16; Ramblin ' Jack Elliott Sept. 22 & 23; and Sonny Terry and Brownie McGhee Sept. 29 & 30.

Profits for these concerts will go to Sickle Cell Anemia Research & Education, Inc. (S.C.A.R.E.) toward a vitally needed mobile testing and education unit for the out-reach Bay Area communities.

Sharing the spotlight on the outdoor stage at the old Mountain Wineryjwill be performers Robbie Basho, acoustic concert guitarist, who will plat the last two weekends; the San Francisco Strutters, appearing on weekends from the 15th through the 30th; and Tewie, Simon & Friend, country musicians who will perform throughout the series.

All concerts are Saturdays and Sundays at 2:30 p.m. Tickets are available at Bay Area Ticketron outlets only.

Around The State

Traffic patterns at the intersection of Espinosa Road and State Highway 101 were changed by the Department of Transportation this month. The move is part of an on-going state-wide safety program aimed at reducing the number of accidents on State highways.

Southbound left turns from Route 101 to Russell Road and direct crossings of Route 101 will be prohibited. These traffic movements will be diverted to the Boronda Road intersection. Left turns for northbound Route 101 traffic will still be permitted as well as all right turns to and from Russell Road and Espinosa Road from Route 101.

A slide which occured during a severe rainstorm last February on Route 1 in Monterey County will be removed and the highway will be reconstructed.

Approximately 100 feet of roadway had been washed away by the torrential rain, at Lafler Creek, eight miles south of Big Sur.

In addition to the slide removal and roadway reconstruction, the roadside embankment will be stabilized.

Participants in child nutrition programs will be offered a choice of the type of milk they drink in schools, under regulations announced by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The revised regulations apply to the National School Lunch, School Breakfast, Special Milk and Special Food Service programs.

Under the new regulations, milk used in these programs may now include lowfat, skim or cultured buttermilk, unflavored or flavored, in addition to whole milk.

Previously, only fluid whole milk was allowed.

More than 243,000 California residents over 62 years of age have already filed 1973 claims for reimbursement of a portion of their 1972-73 property taxes under California's Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance Law, according to State Controller.
